

Dear Milo,

The Admissions Committee has completed its review of your application. I am very sorry to tell you that you were not admitted to the MIT Class of 2027.

Please understand that this is in no way a judgment of you as a student or as a person, since our decision has more to do with the applicant pool than anything else—many of our applicants are not offered admission simply because we don't have enough space in our entering class. This year we had nearly 27,000 candidates for fewer than 1,400 offers of admission. Since all of our decisions are made at one time and all available spaces have been committed, all decisions are final.

We truly appreciate your interest in MIT, and wish you the best in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Stuart Schmill
Dean of Admissions and Student Financial Services
